Parent Bulletin Friday 17th November

Dear Parents

Another very productive week of a variety of events and weather!! All our children are so resilient in the wet, but please do remember school coats in school every day please – we do like to go outside whenever possible. The children and staff enjoyed our Odd Socks Day – a reminder to us all the importance of celebrating differences and being an individual – something very much at the core of our Lyndhurst Values. We are ever closer to our Christmas festivities. The younger children are busy preparing for their nativity plays, our FOL are planning the Christmas Fayre and Mr. Day is putting up our Christmas decorations. Lots to look forward to over the coming weeks.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.
